REGULATORY CHANGES

The Organizing Committee reserves the right to modify and vary the following regulations, the route and altitude profiles until the Race takes place.

PROVIDED CATEGORIES

The categories admitted to the new edition of the Costa degli Etruschi EPIC will be those in force established by the FCI/UCI regulations for the 2024 season

MARATHON: OPEN M/W (Elite – Under 23), MASTER Men (EliteSport – M1 – M2 – M3 – M4 – M5 – M6 – M7 – M8), MASTER Women (EliteSport MW1 – 2 – 3);

For promotional purposes for this edition there will also be a Men's Under 23 category separated from the Open category.

CLASSIC (48 km/1200 m): JUNIOR M/W, MASTER MASTER Men (EliteSport – M1 – M2 – M3 – M4 – M5 – M6 – M7 – M8), MASTER Women (EliteSport MW1 – 2 – 3);GRIGLIE DI PARTENZA

The starting grids for the year 2024 will be in blocks to guarantee greater fluidity of the route and fully enjoy it, considering the territorial characteristics in which the Costa degli Etruschi Epic takes place.

STARTING TIMES AND RACE

The times indicated and the composition of the grids are at the discretion of the C.O. of the Etruscan Coast EPIC who will be able to modify them before the start of the race, to guarantee the best running of the event.

The women's categories that will start, excluding the OPEN, will be able to choose the desired starting block;

Athletes starting in the wrong grid will be disqualified. Athletes registered for the Classic route, but who will start with the athletes of the Marathon route will be disqualified.

It should be noted that the starting time of the Marathon route is set for 9.30 am and the Classic one approximately 15 minutes after the last athlete of the Marathon route passes onto the timing mat.

TECHNICAL PROVISIONS

The Etruscan Coast EPIC is a mountain bike race, in which only the use of mountain bicycles or mountain tandems is permitted. It will be possible to carry out small repairs along the specifically indicated technical areas (see Feed Technical Zone) in which the presence of our assistance stands along the route will also be indicated, if not assisted by your Team. It is advisable to do a technical check of the vehicle before setting off.

SECURITY MEASURES

For the protection of the athletes, the use of an approved helmet is mandatory throughout the race.

The use of cameras or cams positioned on the bike, on the helmet or on the body is prohibited, unless previously authorized by the CO. subject to approval by the Race Jury, as required by current UCI/FCI regulations, under penalty of disqualification.

The race will also take place on public and private roads. It is everyone's duty to respect the rules of the Italian road code. Furthermore, it is mandatory to comply with the relevant UCI and FCI regulations. Anyone who does not respect these rules will be immediately disqualified.

PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF JURY COMPETITION

The President of the Jury for the Marathon route will be designated by the UCI, to which the race is regularly registered, supported by collaborators designated by the FCI and by the Off-Road Racing Director, chosen by the CO. in the appropriate FCI Register currently valid for national and international competitions.

Any complaints may be made official to the jury panel in the manner provided for by the current UCI and FCI regulations.

AWARDS

Immediately after the arrival of the first classified, the "flowers ceremony" will take place in the arrival area. The official awards ceremony will begin at 3:00 pm at Park Hotel Marinetta. At the official awards ceremony, the categories foreseen by the UCI/FCI regulations will be awarded as follows:

DISQUALIFICATIONS

The C.O. reserves the right to exclude athletes from the competition if they are not welcome.
The use of bicycles equipped with any kind of electrical and/or assisted support and aid is prohibited.

RULES FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE SURROUNDING ENVIRONMENT

Waste must be thrown into the appropriate TRASH ZONES marked along the route at the end of each refreshment point. The TRASH ZONES will also be equipped with special bins. However, waste will be thrown on the ground in these areas and will be promptly collected by the personnel in charge.

Outside the TRASH ZONES it is strictly forbidden to throw waste along the route under penalty of disqualification. It should also be noted that the EPIC Etruscan Coast is set within the Magona National Park, therefore we guarantee its maintenance with our behavior.

RESPONSIBILITY

Participation in the Etruscan Coast EPIC is at your own risk. By registering, the competitor renounces any right to complain, including against third parties, against the CO and all those natural and legal persons involved in the organization of the event. Furthermore, the competitors confirm by registering that they are in good physical condition to be able to participate in a competition such as the Etruscan Coast EPIC.

WITHDRAWALS

Abandonment of the route is prohibited, subject to notification to the recognizable personnel (Marshall) who will collect the front panel (transponder) placed on the race board and who will notify the C.O. and the Panel of Juries placed at the arrival of the event.

POSITIONING AND TIMES OF THE RACE CLOSING GATE

The closing gate for the Marathon route only will be positioned at approximately 38km in the locality. Small house in Campo di Sasso.

Only the athletes who follow the Marathon route, outside the travel time limit, will be diverted at the finish line and continue to follow the signs of the Classic route.

No exceptions will be made for any reason or any case. After the closing gate, part of the signs will be removed by the personnel in charge.

The closing gate of the Marathon route will be activated after 12.15pm in Casetta Campo di Sasso
